WIN A $100 DOLLAR PREVIEWS SHOPPING SPREE!

Dear Previews Reader:

Thanks to your support, Previews is the best-selling magazine/catalog in the entire comics industry! Each month, over 50,000 collectors and fans read Previews to find out about new releases two months ahead of time and to place pre-orders with their favorite comics shop.

We're proud of the success of Previews and the exciting features that make it #1. (Exclusive inserts and cards. Prevue in Previews. More pages. More color. More pictures and graphics. More of the inside scoop on all the new releases!) Now, with your help, we hope to make Previews even better!

PLEASE TAKE A FEW MOMENTS TO COMPLETE THE READERSHIP SURVEY LOCATED IN THE BACK OF THIS MONTH'S ORDER FORM. Then, return it to your favorite comics shop (along with your monthly Previews order) by July 15th.

Your responses and suggestions will help us better understand who our readers are, and the kind of products, features, and information you want to see most in Previews.

As an incentive for filling out and returning the Readership Survey by July 15th, we are offering each Previews reader a special uncut sheet of Marvel Universe Trading Cards from Impel.

These exclusive uncut sheets were first featured in Previews* #22-25. All four uncut sheets are currently selling for $40-$50 on the collector's market!

Plus, by completing and returning the Readership Survey, you'll also be entered into a grand prize drawing to win ONE OF 5 ONE HUNDRED DOLLAR PREVIEWS SHOPPING SPREES!

Again, thank you for using Previews and we hope to continue making Previews your best source for comics information and pre-ordering. Your survey responses will help make the comic industry's best magazine/catalog even better. And you just might win $100 in free comics and comics-related merchandise from your favorite comics shop!

Welcome to this issue of PREVIEWS! This is a "deluxe" advance catalog for comic collectors featuring previews of comics and specialty items — usually available only to your retailer! Included are many different items and coming comics as well as a detachable order form. If your store has a subscription service, this is the perfect way for you to update your monthly wants, and to let them know if you wish to purchase any special items not covered by your subscription list. Simply write in the number of copies you'd like (when ordering t-shirts please also indicate the size desired) and return the order form to your store before the deadline printed on the cover. Your retailer can then take into consideration your requests when placing their orders with distributors. Plus, you get the satisfaction of knowing, in advance, what new and exciting titles and stories will be available!

Here's an explanation of some terms and phrases used in PREVIEWS:

"GEM of the Month": These are the "Creme de la Creme", "Top Guns", the "A #1 Best-Bet Items" of the month.

"SPOTLIGHT ON": These items are also of special interest to collectors.

"CLOSE UP": These items are somewhat out of the mainstream, geared toward collectors who are searching for something different and non-traditional.

OFFERED AGAIN: Simply stated, these are items that have been offered before, been released to comic stores, and are "Offered Again" for those who may have missed them the first time around.

RECENT ARRIVALS: Starting with this catalog, we have eliminated a specific Recent Arrival section. Instead, the titles which are immediately available at our Distribution Centers are listed under their publisher's section.

RECYCLING: This symbol highlights products which are printed on recycled paper.

RESOLICITION: All orders taken for these items have been cancelled (usually due to delayed production), new orders must be placed.

That's all there is to it! We hope PREVIEWS helps you, the fan, make better decisions on new titles, and helps make collecting comics much more fulfilling. See you next month!

FOCUS ON . . . GEMS OF THE MONTH! & Close-ups!

This month we take a closer look at the GEMs and Close-Ups for new releases scheduled to ship in September. We've got a long-anticipated GEM with appeal (and significant press coverage) beyond the traditional comic audience. Two other GEMs already have a strong cult following, but their releases this month are destined to expand that number of readers. One of our Close-Ups will appeal to both comic fans and card collectors. Let's see what they are!

GEMS

Most newspaper articles about the "newfound" sophistication of comics over the last few years tend to cite four examples of the excellence comics can achieve: Frank Miller's Dark Knight, Alan Moore and Dave Gibbons's Watchmen, Harvey Pekar's American Splendor, and Art Spiegelman's Maus.

Maus: A Survivor's Tale II Hardcover: And Here My Troubles Began is the concluding collection of Art Spiegelman's autobiographical tale of his parents' fight for survival in war-torn Poland. The second half of this amazing story of Vladek Spiegelman's miraculous perserverance throughout his incarceration at Auschwitz also deals with Art's life in New York trying to live with, and understand, the ordeals his parents went through.

Maus, without doubt, has the ability to impress non-comics readers (as well as regular comics fans). Although mice, cats, and pigs are used to tell the story, these are definitely not funny animals, but realistic characters written and drawn to lead us to really feel the heartwarming and horrible moments, while at the same time provoking us to look further into the depths of human nature.

September is Sandman month at DC Comics, and our overall Sandman GEM covers 9 separate items solicited in this month's Previews. This is an ideal time for all the comic fans who have been hearing about this outstanding series to catch up on what they've been missing! Three trade paperback collections will be available (2 new and one previously offered): Sandman: Preludes & Nocturnes reprints Sandman #1-8; Sandman: The Doll's House (already available) reprints issues #8-16; and Sandman: Dream Country reprints issues #17-20. All three collections feature covers by Dave McKean.

The two new trade paperbacks can be purchased in a slipcase, which has enough space left to insert the already released Doll's House collection (for those who have already purchased it). The Sandman slipcase, featuring Dave McKean artwork, can also be bought separately.

But that's not all! DC also is offering a Sandman Poster with an all-new image by noted horror artist, Kelley Jones; a Sandman T-Shirt; and a Sandman Death Watch. And let's not overlook Sandman #32, which features the beginning of a new storyline and the return of one of the lead characters from "The Doll's House" epic. You will probably never have a better chance to turn comic fans onto Sandman than this month (with the first 20 issues available in trade paperbacks). Don't miss this golden opportunity!

Innovation will collect the successful 12-issue run of Anne Rice's The Vampire Lestat into one massive 400-page color volume, which will feature a new John Bolton cover. This series has received a lot of positive attention. The Vampire Lestat Trade Paperback is perfect for fans who have been tempted to try the series after hearing about it, but came in after the beginning.

Our final GEM this month is Legion of Night, a 2-issue Marvel Bookshelf Format comic written by Steve (Man Thing) Gerber, with art by Whilce (X-Men) Portacio and Scott (X-Men) Williams. This horror title focuses on a bizarre cult's attempt at world destruction using the classic Marvel dragon Fin Fang Foom, and the birth of their opposition: a powerful entity known as Legion. Horror fans, as well as those who enjoy this art team's work on X-Men, will want to see more of Legion of Night.

Close-Ups

Life Through the Ages is a limited run portfolio by "The Father of Dinosaurs," Charles R. Knight. Many current artists, such as Bill Stout and Walt Simonson, have been influenced by Knight's classic work. This high quality $275.00 portfolio consists of five black and white pieces in a gold-embossed hard-cased artist's folder.

That's all for this month.

PREVIEWS #33 (CONSUMER EDITION)

Previews has a new larger format. Each issue is now perfect bound with the same slick covers as before, plus the magazine name, month and year printed on the spine. Also, each issue of Previews measures $8^1/_2$x11, with an interior image size of $7^3/_4$x$10^1/_2$! And best of all, each issue of Previews retails for $1.25 (with each issue now running over 180 pages in length) and now incorporates our Sports Previews catalog! This issue features Malibu on the front cover, Marvel on the back, Fleetway/Quality on the inside front, and Superstar Comics on the inside back cover. Also, Previues in Previews (undetermined at press time). The return date is printed on each edition, allowing you enough time to calculate your monthly order and get it back to your local retailer. Each issue of Previews includes a detachable order form for easier ordering. This issue ships early September for items on sale in November 1991.

Charles R. Knight

"Charles R. Knight was the great artist of prehistoric life. So excellent and so dominant were his works that he virtually constructed our view (both for laypeople and professionals) of the appearances of dinosaurs and other ancient creatures. His images had as much influence as the words of any scientist. The wonderful, large-scale drawings of Life Through The Ages made the drama of ancient life palpable, and helped to make dinosaurs an icon of popular culture. It is a great pleasure to have these drawings available once again in such an impeccable edition."

THE KILLER OF CROWS
by Don Secrease
This is the true story of John Johnson (better known to moviegoers as "Jeriminah Johnson"), a trapper who had an oath taken against him by the Crow Indians, and was faced with mortal combat at every turn. One aspect of Johnson's real life not covered in the film (and often overlooked in historical texts) was that after he defeated an Indian, he would eat their liver—an act which earned him not only fear and respect, but also the nickname, "Liver Eating Johnson!" Also included will be historical back ground material.
b&w $2 50

EVERWHON
adapted by Yaco & Torres
This is an adaptation of Samuel Butler's ground-breaking work of speculative fiction, a pioneer effort in the SF genre in which a young man struggles to live in a world unlike his own, where everything operates differently. Butler's insightful novel was an influence on many writers, and was one piece of the foundation for what evolved into modern science fiction

PREDATOR: COLD WAR #1
by Verheiden, Randall, & Mitchell
The Predators have always hunted in the warmest of climates, presumably because these are the conditions that are most like their homeworld. But this time they've set down in Soviet Siberia, one the coldest places on Earth. New York City police detective Schaefer (whose brother "Dutch" battled the alien in the first film) has had enough of the hunters after his first encounter, but someone—or something—is determined to draw him to Siberia, whether he likes it or not! The covers to this series will be painted by Brian Stelfreeze, and will fit together to form one large action scene!

DANCES WITH COWS Beautiful Stories for Ugly Children #21
by Louapre & Sweetman
Their world was truly a paradise: an endless pasture of green, dewy grass and sunshine-filled skies, under which they lazed their days away, eating, sleeping, and doing the things that cows do. Life was sweet—until that fateful night when Wendell and Tory took a leisurely stroll up to the cold, grey slaughterhouse and found their friend, Henry, hanging upside down from a sharpened steel hook! Faced with their friend's lifeless corpse, the pair broke down the nearest fence and stampeded headlong into the night in search of a safe haven from the madness! But unknown to our bovine protagonists, their gruesome discovery and flight were not unnoticed; the evil (and quite angry) Farmer Bob is hot on their trail! (RO)

ABOUT THE CREATOR
Born in Spain in 1937, Sergio Aragonés emigrated to Mexico with his family where he grew up to be a cartoonist. His career really took off after he moved to New York and began working for MAD Magazine (and has been with them ever since).

Sergio entered the U.S. comic book field in 1967 but it was not until the mega-success of Groo The Wanderer that his comic book work began appearing monthly.

ABRAHAM STONE Book One Country Mouse, City Rat by Joe Kubert

ABRAHAM STONE Book One: Country Mouse, City Rat, the latest full color graphic album from Platinum Editions, features the work of Joe Kubert at his best!

Seeking revenge on the men who killed his family and buried him alive, young Abraham Stone leaves rural Pennsylvania for New York. Shanghaid into working as a "collection agent" for the mysterious mobster Mr. Sheedy, Abraham tracks down the killers and disposes of them one by one.

Since March of 1991, Abraham Stone has been published by Glénat in France, Arboris in Holland, ACME in Italy, Norma in Spain, Semic in Norway, Bastei in Germany, El Globo in Argentina, Platinum in the United States and many other publishers all over the world.

Individually shrink-wrapped, in full color.

KUBERT ON KUBERT and ABRAHAM STONE

"For the past fifteen years, I have been involved in the development of the Cartoon and Graphic Arts School, which I founded," Joe says. "This has diverted me from seriously focusing on my primary career as a cartoonist. No one forced me to direct my efforts toward the school...it was a conscious and deliberate decision. But the pull of this artform (which I have always loved and enjoyed) could no longer be denied. I felt the time to get on with my career was now.

"The idea for the Abraham Stone story originated some seventeen years ago, and its resurrection has come about as a result of many discussions with Ervin Rustemagic´, head of Strip Art Features, during my pleasant stay at his home in Yugoslavia during July of 1990."

A DIVISION OF MARVEL
ENTERTAINMENT GROUP, INC

Horror fans...your time has come,

Welcome to Marvel's fall horror event: the Harvest of Evil! Hellraiser! Nightbreed! Hellraiser: Book of the Damned! Tomb of Dracula! And, as an added bonus for Preview readers, the LEGION OF NIGHT Prevue!

LEGION OF NIGHT is a 2-part 64 page bookshelf comic, and will be a feature title in Harvest of Evil. It is the story of the bizarre cult known as the Fellowship, who are determined to awaken Fin Fang Foom from his dream-filled slumber. Charles Blackwater discovers the cult's horrific plans, but is murdered before he can reveal them. After his demise, however, his body becomes the vessel for an entity known as Legion, whose goal is to stop the revival of Fin Fang Foom.

LEGION OF NIGHT is illustrated by the dynamic art team of Whilce (PUNISHER, X-FACTOR, X-MEN) Portacio and Scott (X-MEN) Williams. And listen to what Editor Ralph Macchio says about the story, "Steve Gerber's work is always spectacular, and this is some of the best he's ever done! It's creepy, spooky, unsettling...you have to read it to really appreciate it."

Whatever ya say Ralph! So here it is, folks -- and exclusive 6-page preview of LEGION OF NIGHT. Enjoy!

PUNISHER CAPTURED

SEPT. 17. 1991, NEW YORK (Special to the Daily Bugle) - New Yorkers were witness last night to the end of an era as the vigilante known as the Punisher was captured by city police. Surprisingly, the arrest of one of the most dangerous men in America was accomplished with little bloodshed. When asked for comment after his arrest Castle stated "It's war. You don't kill the guys on your side. But you don't let misguided officers stop you from doing your job either". Castle had been a decorated member of the Marine Corps

WOLVERINE: RAHNE OF TERRA (1991 Wolverine Annual)
by David & Kubert
Set just before the "X-Tinction Agenda" saga, this tale unfolds on an alternate world with alternate versions of all the major mutant players. On this world, Rahne Sinclair is a princess, guarded by a great white wizard known as Cable. Their main threat is a black magician known as Magneto. Attempting to fulfill a prophecy about a wild beast killing the princess (thus insuring his own rise to power), Magneto kidnaps Wolverine from our world and erases his memory, reducing him to a savage beast. But unbeknownst to Magneto, Cable has replaced the princess Rahne with the mutant Rahne of our world, giving her—and their world—a fighting chance! Bookshelf Format

SEPTEMBER 1991 RELEASES

KATO OF THE GREEN HORNET

Artwork by Brent Anderson

THE BIG 10

WITH JAMES VAN HISE

1. YOU'RE A VERY PROLIFIC WRITER, AREN'T YOU?

Capital City Distribution has even made jokes in their catalogs about how often my name has appeared in there connected to various books I write 10 to 12 non fiction books a year, publish and co-edit the dark fantasy magazine MIDNIGHT GRAFFITI, write short horror stories for the Gladstone magazines like GRAVE TALES write my creator-owned series TYRANNOSAURUS TEX for Master Comics, and I'm co-editing a mass market MIDNIGHT GRAFFITI trade paperback for Warner Books plus I write the monthly TALES OF THE GREEN HORNET

2. WHERE DO YOU GET YOUR IDEAS?

Everywhere Scenes and entire plot ideas come to me when I'm listening to music in the car because the music becomes the soundtrack for the movies I see in my head On the other hand in REAL GHOSTBUSTERS #23, the little boy in the story was named after and based on an old friend of mine who was killed in a car accident Sometimes we write to tell a story other people will enjoy on one level while we use it to say something to ourselves on another level

3. IS THERE A CHARACTER YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO WRITE ABOUT BUT NEVER HAD THE CHANCE?

John Carter of Mars

4. WHAT ARE YOUR FAVORITE GENRES OF FICTION?

Dark Fantasy Weird Fiction Weird Menace (such as the kind of weird crime fiction in the old pulps like THE SPIDER and OPERATOR 5 Very moody adventure stories) Science Fiction Very atmospheric crime fiction as opposed to drawing room mysteries like Agatha Christie I like John D MacDonald George Chesbro, James Ellroy and Jim Thompson

5. WHO'S THE MOST FAMOUS PERSON YOU'VE EVER MET?

I prefer answering this question by using as examples meetings I felt privileged to have had and which can never be repeated I attended a campus talk given by Rod Serling in 1971 I spent an afternoon in Hal Foster's home in 1971 interviewing him and I did the same in 1981 at the home of Philip K Dick I was lucky

6. DID YOU WATCH THE GREEN HORNET TELEVISION SERIES WHEN IT WAS ON?

I was 16 and I loved it, but I always felt that in most cases the character was inevitably more interesting than the rather pedestrian stories he was in as though the stories never lived up to the Hornet himself except in a few scenes but never an entire episode

7. WHAT PLANS DO YOU HAVE FOR THE HORNET?

After the origin story in issue one and two, I'll be switching back and forth every couple issues between the '30s Hornet the '60s Hornet and the 90s Hornet I'll be checking with Chuck Dixon to make sure I don't collide with any of his plans for the '90s Hornet, particularly since I've already plotted a major two- or three-issue story involving major events in the life of the 90s Hornet which Chuck may or may not want to play off of although I resolve everything at the end

8. DID ANYTHING SURPRISE YOU WHEN YOU TOOK OVER THE SERIES?

When I said I wanted to write the origin I thought that I would just be doing a dramatic polish on what had gone before Imagine my surprise when upon diligent investigating I discovered that no origin per se of the Green Hornet had ever been concocted other than a couple references to how he met Kato and where the weapons and car came from That was it' So instead of doing my own version of an old story, I wound up making up 90% of the origin myself

9. ANY SPECIAL DIFFICULTIES WITH WRITING THE GREEN HORNET?

No, because there's so much virgin territory to explore, and so many directions I can go by having three different Hornets in three different time periods to write about

10. ANY MAJOR CHANGES IN THE SERIES?

I don't believe in revamping characters themselves when all that's needed is more imaginative stories and settings for the characters to operate in The characters don't have to change in order for the stories to challenge them more and be more dramatic

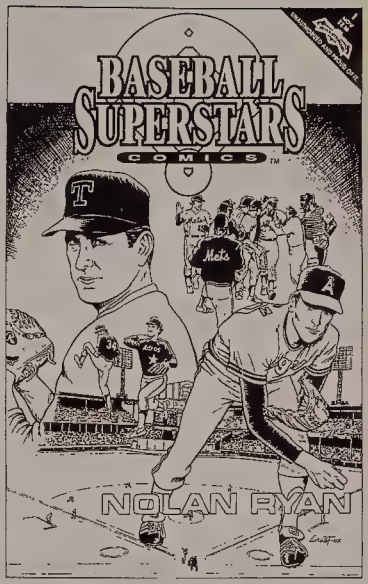
BASEBALL SUPERSTARS 1 - NOLAN RYAN. This new series will focus each month on a different player. Comics and baseball have always been a natural tie-in. Back in the '40's, there was Babe Ruth Sports Comics, The Pride Of The Yankees (about Lou Gehrig), and the 50's brought Baseball Heroes and Baseball Thrills, all unauthorized biographies about some of baseball's greatest stars. Now with comic book stores selling baseball cards, and comic book cards selling at baseball card stores, the time is right to bring back this great combination, and Revolutionary Comics, the industry leader in unauthorized biographies brings you the very best art and stories, and the greatest baseball superstars, starting with the phenomenal pitching sensation, Nolan Ryan! $2.50



See complete listing under "Comics & Magazines" heading.

COMMITTED TO EXPANDING THE HORIZONS OF COMICS AS ART AND COMMUNICATION

In 1989, Revolutionary Comics, Inc., turned the world of comic books upside-down by introducing a series of unauthorized biographies of rock stars, Rock N' Roll Comics. The idea that comics about public figures had to be authorized had been generally accepted prior to this point, it was an idea which prevented much in the way of expansion of subject matter for the comic book genre. This notion was shredded with the introduction and subsequent legal victories of this series.

In 1990, in a highly publicized case, New Kids On The Block sued Revolutionary, and its publisher, Todd Loren. Their complaint — copyright infringement. The Federal Court Judge, John S. Rhoades, threw out the request for a restraining order against Revolutionary stating: "The First Amendment may trump any claim that the plaintiffs have for trademark infringement." and that Rock N' Roll Comics is "... a form of artistic expression, protected by the First Amendment." The New Kids dropped their suit, and no further threats have been made against Revolutionary. As a result, there is now legal precedent specifically backing up the rights of comic book publishers to create unauthorized biographies in comic book form, of public figures. We are true pioneers, and we invite you to join us in our explorations to expand and strengthen the power of the Constitution of the United States of America!

IMAJICA
A Novel
by Clive Barker

Once again journey to the dizzying edge of the apocalypse in this latest novel from the future of horror himself. A deadly, inhuman assassin stalks Judith through the streets of New York City, only to be delivered from death by her former lover, ultimately plunging them both into the mysterious world of Imajica: an erotic landscape of mystery, terror, tyranny, and magical revelat.on. But beware the sinister powers which seek to unite the five dimensions (including Earth), for this reconciliation is not born of love and spiritual consummation, but of unbridled demonic perversity. Can the amassed forces of human (and non human) kind drive a centuries-old evil from their midst, revealing the ultimate secret of Imajica, or will this world and others suffer total and irrevocable annihilation? Passion holds the key to escape—and only Clive knows the answer to it all! Also available in a slip-cased special edition, limited to 500 copies. HOR

SPELLS OF ENCHANTMENT
The Wondrous Fairy Tales of Western Culture
edited by Jack Zipes
The fairy story: it's not just for children any more! The western literary tradition is rife with stories of gnomes, nymphs, nyads, dryads, fairies, ogres, and witchcraft, often penned by authors traditionally lauded for other more serious—and often more turgid—lit-craft. Reprinting the fantasy stories of Goethe, Wilhelm Grimm, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Oscar Wilde, W. B Yeats, Mark Twain, Philip K. Dick, and others, this is an authoritative anthology, fascinating as both a collection of narratives and as literary history. (0-670-83053-4) FAN

Tor Fantasy

CONAN THE DESTROYER
by Robert Jordan

Based on the screenplay for the second and most successful Conan feature film, Jordan's story follows the continuing barbaric adventures of the bulky Cimmerian as he and a beautiful maiden set out on a perilous quest to retrieve a magical gem stone. But first they must face and defeat the sinister Guardians of the Horn, and confront the foul demon god Dagoth. It's crushed skulls, cleaved torsos, and fast-paced sword and sorcery action at its finest as Conan once again drives his enemies from before him, and hears the lamentation of the women. SAVE THE EARTH
edited by Jonathon Porritt

Lavishly illustrated and superbly written throughout, this incisive and enlightening text—produced in association with Friends of the Earth International—illuminates the environmental challenges facing this and future generations, and examines a vast array of possible solutions, as proposed and delineated by a number of familiar voices: some authoritative, others merely impassioned, but all genuinely concerned about the ultimate fate of our native world. Walter Cronkite, Carl Sagan, Paul McCartney, Desmond Tutu, George Harrison, Ed Asner, and many other celebrities, environmentalists, scientists, artists, and other ecophilosophers contribute essays and brief text pieces to this striking book, sure to inspire many a reader for years to come. GOOD OMENS
The Nice and Accurate Prophecies of Agnes Nutter, Witch
by Gaiman & Pratchett

Apocalyptic humor abounds as the massed armies of Heaven and Hell prepare for the final conflict. But two silly demons actually like it here, and have no choice but to stop the Four Motorcyclists of the Apocalypse. Devilishly clever and decidedly British high comedy in the tradition of the Illuminatus books. (0-89480-853-2) SF

GOOD OMENS

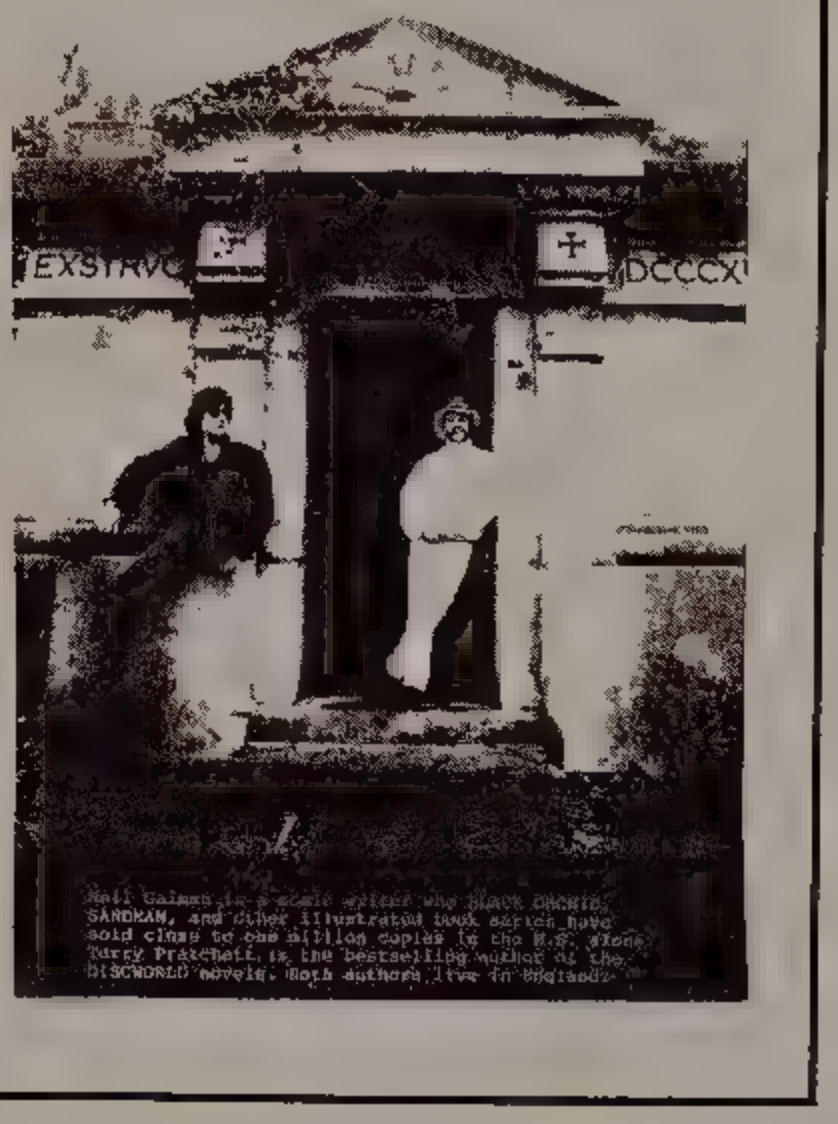
"The Apocalypse has never been funnier...Mr. Gaiman and Mr. Pratchett are to be congratulated: their partnership has produced a riotous romp through Revelations, brimming with blissful daftness and wry one-liners."
– CLIVE BARKER –

"...a slapstick Apocalypse, a grimming grimoire, a comic Necronomicon, a hitchhiker's guide to the netherworld."
– JAMES MORROW –
(author of ONLY BEGOTTEN DAUGHTER)

"GOOD OMENS is an utter delight – fresh, exciting, uproariously funny, and yet with an underlying seriousness that makes it not farce but high comedy."
– POUL ANDERSON –

"A badass delight...and one Hell of a funny book."
– GENE WOLFE –

"...fast and furiously funny."
– PAT CADIGAN –
(World Fantasy Award winner and author of MIND PLAYERS)



Neil Gaiman is a comic writer the BLACK ORCHID, SANDMAN, and other illustrated book series have sold close to one million copies in the U.S. alone. Terry Pratchett, is the bestselling author of the DISCWORLD novels. Both authors live in England.

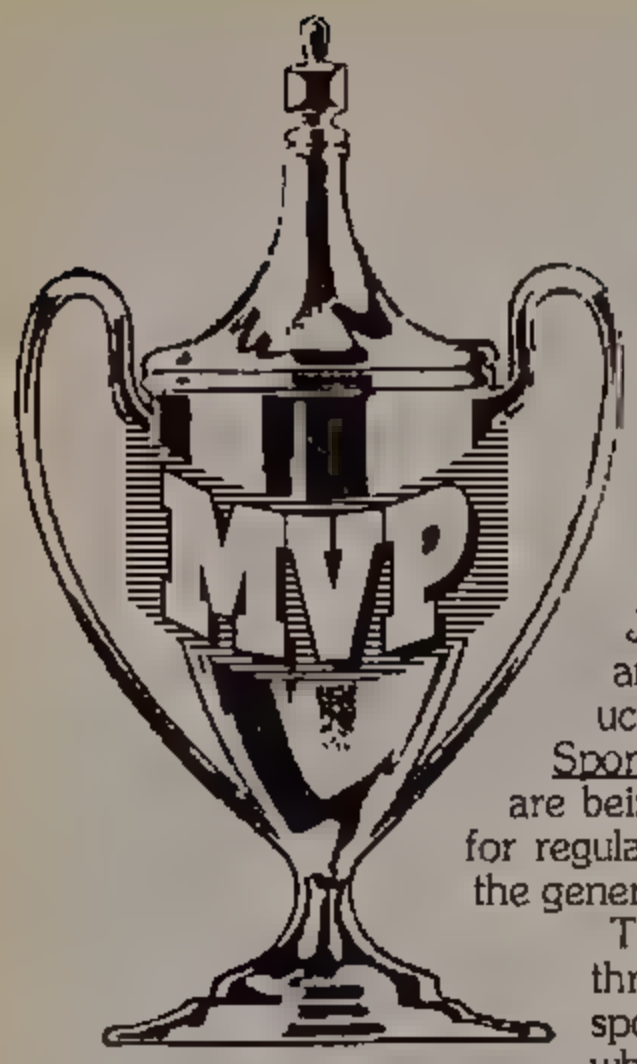
SCORE HOCKEY CARDS

KAYO BOXING CARDS

SKYBOX 1991-92 SERIES 1



FOCUS ON . . .

The card industry grows by leaps and bounds every month! Just check out the amount of new products and cards in our Sports Previews section that are being produced not only for regular sports fans, but for the general audience as well.

This month we have three MVP's from the sports arena. Remember when the only cards produced were baseball cards and some non-sports cards? Not any more, as card companies vie for licenses in every sport.

Our first MVP comes from a growing sports card segment: boxing cards. Long ignored by card companies, the number of sets for boxing has exploded. This month we offer Kayo Boxing Cards, an outstanding boxing card set of top-of the-line full color cards, produced with a similar process as Upper Deck and SkyBox cards. A magnificent 250 card set, Kayo Boxing Cards will also contain limited edition holograms and special autograph cards randomly inserted in packs. Kayo is also the only boxing card set to feature Mike Tyson. Simply put:: Kayo Boxing Cards are a knockout!

SkyBox 1991-92 Series I looks like another winner in the burgeoning basketball card market. It's also our second MVP of the month. Last year, SkyBox brought a new approach to trading cards with enhanced computer graphic photography and magnificent gold borders. This year's SkyBox cards will feature more of the same with NBA Properties refining and updating these high quality basketball cards.

Our third MVP comes from another sport and hot card market, Score Hockey Cards. Score has not one, not two, but three different sets in all. The first set will be a U.S. version with 440 cards sold in polypacks and blister packs. The second set is a Canadian version, which will be bilingual with French/English on the backs and will be in two series, 660 cards in all. Score will also produce a third set which will be Canadian and feature all-English backs. The Canadian All-English version is a two series 660-card set and will not be produced in factory sets.

Close-Ups

We have two wonderful autographed items as our Close-Ups this month. Our first is a specially designed lithograph featuring Wayne Gretzky and his successor to greatness, Mario Lemieux-which will be signed by both hockey stars. Lemieux successfully carried his Penguins to an improbable Stanley Cup victory and the Great One....well, is the Great One. The background features St. Louis and the St. Louis Arch, site of this year's All-Star Game. It's the perfect commemorative lithograph for your favorite hockey fan.

Ah, the lure of past years, or as Bruce called it, the "Glory Days." One of the greatest past memories was of Mickey Mantle and the Summer of '61 as he and Maris battled all year. Previews is proud to offer a special Mickey Mantle Autographed Ball perfect for fathers and young fans who appreciate the stars of yesteryear

Sports Shorts

Has anyone noticed that more and more card companies are advertising on TV? SkyBox was on the NBA Finals, Nickelodeon, ESPN and MTV while Pro Set (Yo' MTV Raps cards) and Impel (Super Star Musicards) were also advertised on MTV. Plus, numerous companies have found their way into general sports publications such as Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, and USA Today's sports section.

Pro Set has announced a special educational program for school kids. In September Pro Set will be distributing 35 million NFL Pro Set cards to over 3,000 students in 2,000 schools. Instead of statistics on the back, these cards will contain interactive questions on geography, science, math, reading, and the overall theme of "stay in school." Teachers will be provided with a "Game Plan" with student activities sheets, a lesson plan, and an oversized interactive poster. Look for it in your school!

Michael, Man of Wonder, Master of Hang Time, how high will your cards go?....Another basketball license may be issued soon and the bidding war is down to two card companies...Pat Kelly, Chuck Knoblauch, and Mark Lewis should battle for the American League Rookie of the Year. Don't miss the special Star card sets for these budding superstars in this month's Previews...Pat Riley should point the Knicks in the right direction but the talent cupboard is a little bare...Ripken is a lock for the Hall of Fame after an utterly phenomenal year so far.

'Till next month,

"Dugout Dan" Manser

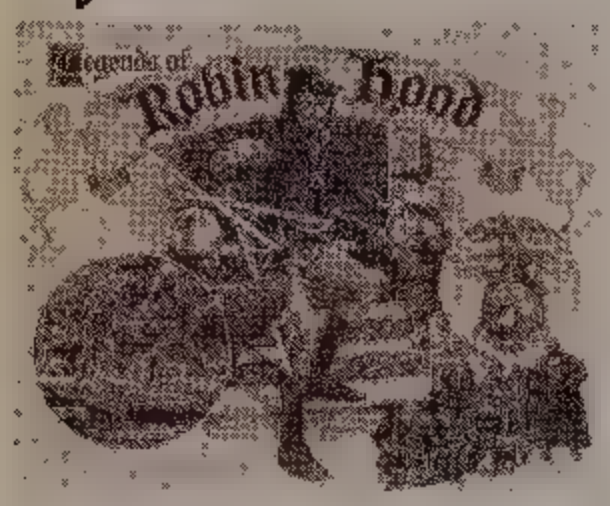
AVALON HILL

SPOTLIGHT ON:



LEGENDS OF ROBIN HOOD

Rob wealthy travelers, recruit stout yeomen, win archery competitions, deliver your entire family from the oppression of medieval nobles and clergy, and entertain the kids long after Kevin Costner retires to the Love Boat with this exciting card/board game from Avalon Hill. Each player assumes the role of a different outlaw and maneuvers his attendant band of Merry Men across the map using cards that dictate the action and define the sequence of play with little or no reference to the rule sheet Amass the most ill-gotten gold, and you're a winner! Game plays for approximately one hour, and occupies two to four Merry Men and Women, ages 10 and up. Includes playing board, action cards, and stand-up playing pieces (#6425)

CHAMPIONS PRESENTS #1 ADVENTURE ANTHOLOGY

Designed for use with the Champions hardcover (see below), this is a collection of three different adventure supplements that may be played individually, or as a longer and more involved superhero adventure campaign. The first anthologized adventures pits Champions gamers against a newly-formed coalition of super-baddies dedicated to the proposition that all good guys must die...painfully! Their secret weapon: the United States Congress! In the second installment, players must gird their loins to do multidimensional battle as they struggle with frosty ice demons intent on world domination. And finally: travel through time to confront the lethal Tempus and his lethal arsenal of anachronistic super menaces! (Whew!) (#418)

For fun all summer long, play the new DUNGEONS & DRAGONS game!

Discover the New DUNGEONS & DRAGONS® Game and Have Some Real Fun!

Take an adventure beyond your wildest imagination. One that's filled with heroic warriors, wizards, elves, and ferocious dragons! Imagine the fun you and your friends can have

First, create a character. What will you be? Bold, daring, cunning, or cautious? How are you dressed? What spells do you know? What weapons do you carry?

Then you and your friends create the story .

"While carrying torches and walking down the dark twisting stairs, the path ends at a pool of black, bubbling oil. How do you cross it? Which hallway leads to the jewels . . . and which leads to the dungeon? The map doesn't say."

If you overcome the traps, your party might escape the danger. But you never know what lurks around the next corner. . . .

Step into this world of fantasy with the brand new DUNGEONS & DRAGONS® game! Learning to play is fast and fun. It's where real fantasy adventure begins.

Don't wait. Discover the new DUNGEONS & DRAGONS game at toy, book, and hobby stores today!

STAR TREK
THE NEXT GENERATION

Commodore Travers summons the Starship Enterprise™ to Starfleet Base Cestus I but when they arrive the base is gone, destroyed by merciless aliens. Captain Kirk pursues the alien ship to Metron territory. The peace-loving Metrons decide to let the captain and the enemy commander, an immense y strong reptile called a Gorn, face each other in mortal combat on a nearby planet. To overcome the Gorn's superior strength Kirk builds a makeshift cannon and mixes gunpowder from elements of the terrain. He seriously wounds the Gorn but refuses to kill it. The episode ends with the enlightened Metrons hoping that the Gorns and the humans will someday become friends.

The Romulan Empire is an offshoot of the Vulcans having separated from the main civilization prior to the Vulcan discovery of logic and peace as a primary way of life. Physically, Romulans bear a striking resemblance to their Vulcan cousins with some features appearing to be more extreme. That, however, is where the similarity ends. Romulans are a cruel race who have fashioned their society around the preponderance of war. In battle, Romulans do not take prisoners. Their military capability was partially realized by a short-lived alliance with the Klingons, who exchanged warp-drive technology for the Romulan cloaking device which renders a warship invisible. But the friendship soon collapsed with both in bitter conflict. Presently, an uneasy truce exists between Romulans and the Federation.

In addition to playing Captain Jean-Luc Picard of the U.S.S. Enterprise™ in STAR TREK® The Next Generation™, Patrick Stewart is considered one of the most accomplished actors in Great Britain. American filmgoers will remember him as Gurney Halek in "Dune" and Leodegranz in "Excalibur." Stewart most recently starred in the London production of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf." Perhaps it's not surprising that he is also respected as one of Britain's foremost Shakespearean performers — Stewart was born in Mirfield, U.K., whose population of 11,000 supported twelve drama clubs. Early on, Stewart had to make a career choice between journalism and acting. He claims that "acting was better at sensing furniture than I was at journalism."

Kirk and the U.S.S. Enterprise™ are transporting a Kaldorm diplomatic party to another planet, but this is unlike any diplomatic mission Kirk has ever encountered. The Kaldorm are polygamous. One of the ambassador's three wives is an old flame of the captain's—and she's all for rekindling the romance that once existed between them. This tends to make things a little awkward aboard the ship. To make matters worse, a diplomatic attache is mysteriously murdered by what the autopsy reveals as a powerful beast. A crew member is suspected and it's up to Kirk to unravel the mystery.

JUBILEE CUTOUT PIN

She dresses like the Boy Wonder (well, she used to), she flies off the handle at the slightest provocation, and she creates fireworks from her hands. She's Jubilee, the newest X Man and the latest in Planet Studios' Jim Lee X-Men pin series!

(#195) $5.95

ROGUE CUTOUT PIN

Of all the characters that Jim Lee has drawn in his stint on X-Men, the one character that he has the most fun drawing is the truly fabulous Rogue. This pin depicts the Southern Belle of the mutant set flying at breakneck speed, arms outstretched

(#196) $5.95

WOLVERINE PANEL PIN

Wolverine rushes off into battle in this circular panel design, based on the artwork of Art Thibert.

(#197) $5.95

CAPTAIN AMERICA BIG SHIELD PIN

It's his 50th anniversary this year, and no anniversary celebration would be complete without a great big pin of a red, white, and blue shield—at least in Cap's case. This pin comes individually boxed with a safety pin.

(BP-3) $9.95

PUNISHER CUTOUT SKULL BOLO TIE

All the small arms training and anti-personnel armament in the world won't prepare you for making an impression at parties or board meetings—but the Punisher Skull Bolo Tie will! Enter any situation and take control with this Punisher longtooth skull bolo, complete with fake leather strings and way-too-cool bullet shaped bolo tips.

(139-B) $17.95

ARCHIE HEAD PIN

It's safe to assume that, over his fifty-year history in high school, no one has ever demanded that Archie Andrews' head be presented to them on a silver platter. Now on a cloisonné pin—that's another story altogether!

(#AR1) $5.95

KEEP ON TRUCKING PIN #1

Here's another blast from the past courtesy of Planet Studios' Robert Crumb Classic Hippy Pins Series, this one featuring the classic image, "Keep on Trucking."

(#KOT-1) $5.95

BOOMER & CUTIE PIN

KIMONO MY HOUSE

STAR TREK LIVES T-SHIRT

This very unflattering (but humorous) commentary on the stature of Star Trek fandom depicts a very big fan of the series, decked out in a stretched-to-the-max Starfleet uniform, Vulcan ears, tricorder and phaser. If you've had it with "Trekkies," and you don't mind provoking the wrath of this vast contingent of Star Trek fandom, then this is the shirt for you. You have been warned. Available in Medium, Large, X-Large, and XX-Large.

AMAZING THIRD PLANET COLLECTIBLES

ACTION JACKSON 8" ACTION FIGURE

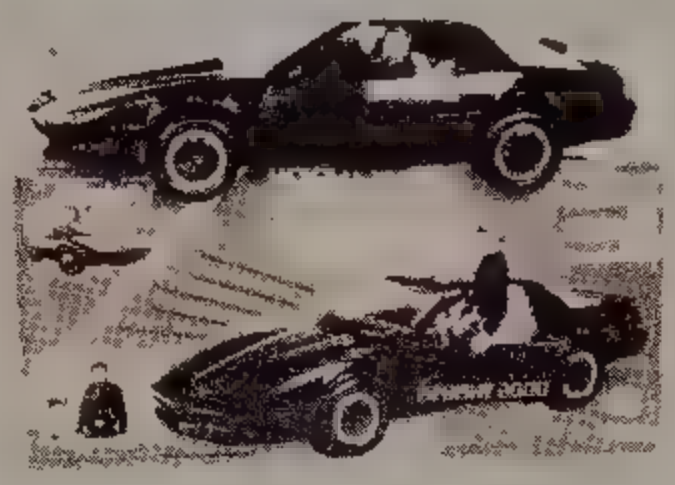
Now just wait a second: This little dude looks nothing like Carl Weathers! Why? Because he's G.I. Joe's midget cousin—the teenie-tiny generic man-of-bold-adventure, Action Jackson—that's why! Produced by Mego in the early 1970s to compete with Hasbro's wildly successful line of military action figures, this fully poseable, 8" macho-man comes complete with a removable blue nylon jump suit, white plastic belt and boots, a dog tag, stick-on tattoos, and (of course) his "mod styled" hair (making him the ultimate '70s high-impact plastic babe magnet)! Packaged in his original illustrated window box. Do and dare.. he's everywhere!

Boxed $17 00

ACTION JACKSON MILITARY UNIFORMS SET

Now that you've purchased your semi-brand-new Action Jackson figure, you can't just let him run around naked, now, can you? Produced by Mego in 1971, each of these six nifty little get-ups casts the esteemed Mr. J. in the role of a different serviceman or para-military assault operative· Army, Ski Patrol, Air Force Pilot, Frogman, Navy, and Australian Marine. All uniforms are fully accessorized (boots, 'helmets, rifles, pistols, binoculars, ammo belts, and the like), and are packaged in their original illustrated window boxes. Neat!

Set $51.00



TALKING KNIGHT RIDER CAR W/FIGURE

Talk about your mod styled hair! Complete with a 6" poseable David (Michael Knight) Hasselhoff figure, this 14" inch Kenner "Knight 2000 Turbo" replica features hinged doors and 5 different K. I. T T. computer sayings (activated by pushing the license plate). Produced in 1983, this unique TV collectible comes packaged in its original display box.

Boxed $55 00

DRAGON WALKER VEHICLE

No mod styled hair here, just straight sci-fi fantasy super barbarian action! Battery operated and 12" in length, this nasty looking reptilian vehicle—featuring "sidewinding action" was produced by Mattel in 1983 as part of their initial Masters of the Universe line, and comes packaged in its original illustrated window box.

RAM MAN WITH SCREECH ACTION FIGURE

The rarest of all Masters of the Universe figures, this particular "Ram Man" also comes complete with the super-eagle Screech, an arm perch, a free-standing perch, and a red plastic battle axe. Originally a Canadian toy distributor exclusive, this mint Ram Man package ships in its brown cardboard mailer box.

ROLLING STONE MAGAZINE
The Uncensored History
by Robert Draper

Card-carrying members of the Society for the Advancement of Time should not purchase this book! But for those who still remember the sixties (as well as for those who just think they do), this mammoth illustrated history should shake loose a few surviving brain cells, and transport readers back to that brief, shining, and very hairy moment when rock was royalty, and Stone publisher Jann Wenner its scribe! Chart the course of the former hip-hop counterculture anti-journal and current paparazzi scandal sheet as seen through the eyes of industry insider Robert Draper, including the reminiscences of hippie icons Hunter S Thompson, Lester Bangs, John Lennon, Greil Marcus, Mick Jagger, and a host of other marginally conscious sixties renegades.
